

Index

Introduction

Capitolo 1: The equity gap

1.1 The equity gap

1.1.1 If it weren't for the equity gap

1.2 Ways of covering the gap

1.2.1 Loss – sharing schemes?

1.2.2 Debt?

1.2.3 Business Angels: can they fly?

1.2.4 Where's the exit?

1.2.5 But what exactly are Business Angels?

1.2.5.1 Entrepreneurial Angels

1.2.5.2 Consulting Angels

1.2.5.3 The Treasurer

1.2.5.4 The Job – seeking Angel

1.2.5.5 The Guardian Angel

1.3 Business Angels versus Venture Capitalists

1.3.1 Born in the USA

1.3.2 Business Angels in Europe

1.3.3 The United Kingdom

1.4 Business Angels Networks

1.5 A heaven – like environment: persistent differences between the U:S: and Europe

1.6 Concluding remarks

Capitolo 2: Angels over Italy

2.1 Angels over Italy

2.1.1 SMEs in Italy: it's a matter of size

2.1.2 Small but powerful

2.1.3 SMEs: can they make it on their own?

2.2 Parting from the debt

2.2.1 Tax relieves can perform miracles

2.2.2 Venture Capital and Private Equity in Italy

2.3 Informal Venture Capital in Italy

2.3.1 The creation of the Italian Business Angels Network

2.3.2 Angels do exist

2.4 Entrepreneurship

2.5 Concluding remarks

Capitolo 3: Case study

3.1 What goes through an Angel's mind

3.2 The project

3.3 The idea

3.4 The deal

3.5 The environment

3.6 The final decision

3.7 Concluding remarks

Appendix

Capitolo 4: Greece

4.1 Is there potential for Business Angels

4.1.1 Greece: a positive environment for investments

4.1.2 Competitiveness

4.1.3 Improving the business environment and encouraging business initiatives

4.2 Greek small and medium enterprises

4.2.1 SMEs' structure and financial difficulties

4.2.2 Different categories of SMEs

4.3 Solution for the financial gap of Greek SMEs

4.3.1 Mutual Guarantee Companies

4.3.2 Venture Capital in Greece

4.4 Let Angels fly

4.5 Concluding remarks

Final considerations